Come to Kelvin Smith Library

The Kelvin Smith Library is often called KSL. Look for the large building next to Thwing Center, on Euclid Avenue.

Parking is available on nearby streets & usually requires coins for parking space meter-boxes. A garage (S-29) with hourly-fees is underneath the library, with the entrance on East Boulevard. Take the elevator up to the plaza level so you can enter KSL or go to Thwing Center.

Coming to Campus:
 KSL's location information page shows you parking, local transportation, and a campus map. Campus Directions are helpful if you are driving or coming to Cleveland and then to campus.

How to Find & Borrow Things You Need

You're welcome to go directly to the shelves in the library to find the things you need to read. KSL has 4 floors and 900 chairs so it's easy to find books, journals, magazines, and newspapers that need to stay in the library to use.

You can search & find titles on the Case Catalog, or reference books & journals and help you identify the numbers on shelving areas to help you know where to find things, a happy to answer any questions & help you find what you need.

The SAT is one of the exams many high school students take so that scouting colleges can see which students may or may not fit in with the rest of their student body.
